

BRUSH UPDATE:

Due to large volumes of brush curbside some areas have not been collected. We're asking residents to be patient and please refrain from putting out additional material.

Crews will make one final collection through town which will finalize special storm clean-up.